Stars of the Week

Learners of the Week

Congratulations to the following children who have put amazing effort into their learning this week:
Oakley J for trying very hard to remember his new sounds in phonics and match them to initial sounds in words; Oscar B for showing amazing effort when writing his innovated Cornish Tale about Petroc the Dragon; Brooke H for trying really hard to sound out her words in her story in Talk for Writing and even spotting mistakes and correcting them in blue pen; Summer C for an amazing week in talk for writing. She has tried really hard to include everything on her toolkit; Indigo-Violet T for showing focus and effort in her Talk for Writing and overcoming challenges independently; Finlay P for working so hard with his story structure and handwriting in Talk for Writing; Thomas C for improvements and creativity in writing and Kai F for trying so hard with his writing this week. His traditional tale is really taking shape and his Pie Corbett Haiku poem was super!

What a fabulous bunch!

BringIt! Award

Well done to the following children who brought their light and gifts to school this week:

Wolf B for his theatrical talents this week supporting children on stage during helicopter stories; Phoebe T for bringing her kind and caring nature to our class this week; Oakly K for showing how well he has learnt his 5 times tables by bringing a love for challenge everyday in his Early Morning Maths; Tilly B for running the virtual cross country this week. Tilly showed her talent of running and perseverance! Nikodem S for bringing a brilliant attitude to school everyday; Dexter S for being amazing in our Cross Country event; Amy P & Summer H for working together to #bringit to the cross country competition; Jack M for bringing his perseverance to school each day. He is really working hard each day to persevere through things that are tricky.

Mr Barker's Sports Personality of the week is:

Ethan M for his brilliant running in this week's MAT cross country competition. Ethan is only in Year 3 but did not stop running once for the whole 3km and completed the run in 19m 50s. He even continued running after finishing to help others in his class complete the run meaning he ended up running over 4.5km! What a trooper!

#BringCreativity!

This term we are thinking about the Christian value of respect and this week, we've been focussing on respecting our creativity as part of creation.

We have been thinking about how we are all children of God and therefore co-creators with Him. We have the ability to discover and create wonderful things that can help our world be a better place.

We started the week by watching a short video of the birth of The Universe and compared it to the Genesis Creation Story. We believe that it is important to realise how special we are and develop our creativity for the good of others and the world in which we live.

The following children showed a real focus on looking after creation and, as a part of creation, developing their creativity:
