Bring It! Award

Well done to the following children who brought their light and gifts to school this week:

Matthew S for bringing his superb acting skills to our Talk for Writing sessions. He acted out the bear hunt story with great enthusiasm; Iris M for bringing creativity to our class and sharing her creativity with her friends; Henry M for bringing his talent of super counting skills and problem solving when paying for his poppy; Ravi S for bringing his talent of counting money! We used the poppy selling as another maths opportunity and Ravi was fantastic and helped the other children work out how much they needed and what change they should have - a shopkeeper in the making! Harley S for bringing his brilliant ideas to our writing lessons and inspiring the class with his imagination; Dexter G for bringing courage to our story telling sessions this week. Well done for stepping outside of your comfort zone Dex! Thomas C for bringing courage to his maths work and Bobby M for bringing into school a really positive attitude towards his learning.

Mr Barker's Sports Personality of the week is:

Tegan H (Year 5) - This award could have gone to a number of the Buccaneers this week who had their best PE lesson to date. However, the certificate goes to Tegan for her attitude to learning about the effects of exercise on the body and showing great creativity when producing and performing her own Dance routine.

Well done to them all!

#Bring Courage!

This term's Christian value is courage. Courage isn't about being powerful or strong; it's about doing what you know is true, even when it seems other things are against it. We need courage to stand up for what we believe in. The word courage comes from 'coeur,' the French word for heart. Christians believe that God is inside everyone's heart and if you listen well, your heart will tell you what is right and what is wrong. In Picture News, we learned about Marcus Rashford and his call for children experiencing poverty to be fed. He demonstrates courage as not everyone agrees with him.
